

Advertise in FORUM+

FORUM+ is the peer reviewed journal for research and arts in Belgium and the Netherlands and is published three times a year. The journal explores the latest trends in art research, which is gaining importance in higher arts education and universities in Flanders and the Netherlands. Our articles reach students, researchers, and teachers in the fields of music, theatre, dance, visual, (audio-)visual and applied arts. In addition, FORUM+ attracts a wide audience of art and culture enthusiasts in Belgium and the Netherlands.

Editorial formula

FORUM+ is both an academic journal and a cultural periodical. It publishes articles and visual essays that stem from original research and are peer-reviewed by the editorial staff and a member of the editorial advisory board with a specific expertise in this field. In addition, FORUM+ contains artistic texts, interviews, reflective essays, in-depth reviews of books, CDs, DVDs, exhibitions, theatre, opera and dance performances, and a heritage section called 'Ex Libris' about, among others, the rich library collection of the Antwerp Conservatory. In this way, FORUM+ provides a platform for the many ways in which research in the arts is expressed and articulated today.

Since 2017, we are partnering with the renowned Amsterdam University Press (AUP) for the publication of FORUM+. AUP has over 20 years of experience in publishing non-fiction books and journals for a wide audience of interested readers and scholars.

Readership

With two main focuses, research on the one hand and the arts on the other, FORUM+ aims at a broad audience of culture enthusiasts both in Belgium and the Netherlands: students, researchers, academics, artists and culture lovers. The journal generally addresses men and women who received a higher education.
